Sympathy

St. Paul Church extends our sympathy to Lisa Foxall and her family. Lisa's father, John Applegate, recently passed away. May he rest in peace.

Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord

Thank you to all who shared photos for our bulletin board encouraging prayer for our departed. If you would like your photo back, please take it from the bulletin board after Mass on November 29-30. Any photos left will be kept for next year. May the souls of all our faithful departed rest in peace.

Bishop Fulton Sheen Canonization Cause

On Thursday, December 4, 2025, at 6:30 p.m. at St. Paul Church, Msgr. Jason Gray will present the history and process of Bishop Fulton Sheen's canonization to sainthood. Sign-up sheets for attendance will be available in the narthex.

Parish Hall Update

We are grateful to share the good news that our parish has received approval to move forward with construction of the new Parish Hall and the capital campaign. Father Marc extends his thanks to Msgr. Pricco, Father Stimpson, and all parishioners - past and present - for your prayers, generosity, and support that have brought us to this milestone. He also asks that we continue to keep this project in our daily prayers as we begin this important and exciting stage in the life of our parish. Please see the insert in this week's bulletin for Father Marc's full Thanksgiving message and reflection.

Lessons & Carols - Sunday, Dec. 14 at St. Paul Church

A Festival of Lessons and Carols is a traditional Advent program of Scripture and song dating back to the 19th century. Nine Scripture readings recall the Fall, the promise of a Messiah, the Incarnation, and our call to share the Good News. Each reading is followed by a carol or song reflecting on its message and a brief prayer.

St. Paul's Women's Guild invites the entire parish and community to this year's celebration on Sunday, Dec. 14 at 4 p.m. The hour-long service offers a seamless progression of readings and music - reflective, beautiful, and ultimately joyful.

Light refreshments and fellowship will follow in the narthex. Give yourself a moment of quiet this Advent for prayerful reflection and time with friends. All are welcome.

Office Hours

The Parish Office will be open Monday, November 24th through Wednesday, November 26th from 8 to noon. The Parish Office will be CLOSED on Thursday, November 27th and Friday, November 28th.

Mass Intentions

What greater tribute to a loved one than a Mass offered in their honor or memory? We currently have openings for Mass intentions at both churches—please consider scheduling one for someone living or deceased. Envelopes are available at both churches; simply include the name, intention, and $10 donation, and place it in the collection basket or contact the parish office:

At St. Rose Church see Marilyn Sillars, Linda Butler or Fr. Marc

At St. Paul Church see Jim Foxall in the parish office.

For either church, call (309) 833-2496.

Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro (continued)

Father Pro's martyrdom reinvigorated that beleaguered Church, whose countless faithful, never again afraid, would throng John Paul II when he visited Pro's beloved Mexico fifty-two years later.

Treasures From Our Tradition

Today's solemnity, the final feast of the Church year, is a youngster as feasts go. In 1925, Pope Pius XI was distressed by global political upheaval and the de-Christianizing of society. That year was a "Holy Year," keyed to the sixteen hundredth anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, when the words "and of his kingdom there will be no end" were added to the Creed. The Pope explained that although most feasts had developed over many centuries, the Church sometimes provided a new feast to address new needs. He pointed to the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, showing Christ's love and compassion in a time when many people embraced a cold and gloomy spirituality. Originally on the last Sunday of October, in the late 1960s the solemnity of Christ the King was moved to the last Sunday of the year.

Fresh from baptism's waters, we are anointed with chrism "as Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king." This feast is a key to our identity. On this feast, we recognize Christ as a king who breaks the usual mold of kingship, and who shapes his kingdom with our hands, our words, our deeds of love and service.

-James Field

The Word in our Lives

The man who hung on the cross next to Jesus asks him to "remember me when you come into your kingdom." Of all the people who took part in the crucifixion of Jesus, only this man sincerely acknowledges Jesus as King. Only he receives the promise of joining Jesus in paradise that very day. I wonder if he knew what Jesus' kingdom meant?

The second reading gives us a better idea of the extent of that kingdom. Paul uses images of things visible and invisible, of dominions, principalities, and powers. Notice one short phrase that appears six times in that reading: "all things." If Christ is King of all things, that includes our possessions. We might keep that in mind, not only when deciding how much we give to the poor or to the Church, but also how we use the things we own. The things we watch on TV, the foods we eat, the books we read—all are under Jesus' kingship. I might even drive more carefully if I remember that my car belongs to the Lord.

Even our life is under his reign. That can remind us to trust Jesus more, as well as to ask for the guidance of his Spirit in our decisions. If we let the Lord guide our lives, we know that anything that happens to us is either God's will or something that Jesus can lead us through, on our way to paradise.

-Tom Schmidt

Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro (1891–1927)

Graham Greene's classic The Power and the Glory immortalized Mexico's persecuted Church of the 1920s. But photographs of Father Pro—arms outstretched to image Christ Crucified, kneeling in prayer before the firing squad, crumpled dead on the ground—vividly, visually remind us that not long ago, not far away, the faith we take for granted cost everything!

Born to a mining family, Miguel became a Jesuit and was sent to study Catholic labor movements in Belgium in preparation for evangelizing Mexico's workers. But he returned to find a Mexico determined to annihilate Catholicism, and, like priests before him during Roman persecutions, England's Reformation, and in China today, ministered secretly to an "underground Church" until apprehended and sentenced to the firing squad.

In his final moments, Father Pro blessed his executioners, forgave his enemies, and shouted: "Viva el Cristo Rey!—Long Live Christ the King!"—his defiant, dying proclamation of ultimate, transcendent loyalty. (continued on next column)
